You made it an Unbelievable Tax Season!

Hello Friends and Clients!

You guys rock! That's about as simple as I can put it, given 2010 goes down as the 13th record year in a row, thanks to all of you for that. I was simply blown away at this year's response, given sales sky rocketed well over 50% from 2009, so I don't have to tell you how I feel about that. It was a tough winter out west and now that the weather is finally warming up, I am looking forward to a mini vacation with family in Boston later this month. Two weeks ago, as you may have picked up from all the news releases, the town of Vulcan, Alberta hosted Leonard Nimoy on Friday, April 23rd. For those of you who made it down, it was an unqualified success and the highlight of our town for years to come. So in case you're wondering, my summer has already started on an excellent note.

I am anxious to get my book finished this year (I know I said that last year-so I'm hoping I'm right this time), so look out for that and of course you folks get a deal on it. As some of you may have noticed, CRA is clamping down on late filers and making it harder to put off. Tax time is never easy and that's why I am here-to help you through that annual season which most Canadians find challenging. But most important, is after the season, especially if you didn't file. If you "Are Really, Really Behind on Your Taxes", no worries, I can help!

Always at your tax service,

Neel
