E-File Shutting Down for 2008 Personal Tax Returns

Hello, Friends and Clients!

Happy Autumnal Equinox-That means first day of Fall. Just a quick reminder that not only has the Autumn officially started but “E-File” will be shutting down for the 2009 season and that simply means 2008 Personal (T1) Tax Returns filed after Tuesday September 30th, 2009 will take 1-2 months to process as compared to the normal 1-2 weeks. Corporate clients still have up to 4 years before we must paper file them. If you still need yours done, let me know and I’ll see if I can slide you in. You can obtain missing T4’s, etc. by calling CRA at 1-800-959-8281 and it general takes a few days to get mailed to your address. I also suggest you have them include a copy of the last return filed so you can claim carry forwarded credits and adjust limits such as RRSP contributions. This is provided by CRA free of charge, and instantly. Once you have this, fax or scan to me so I can take it from there!

Always at your tax service,

Neel
